Entries may enter other classes at the show if eligible. Classes offered for walk/trot and walk, trot, canter riders, in both equitation and pleasure. Riders may not cross enter between W/T and W/T/C.

Pre-Entry $3/class with six ribbons and special award for class winners.

◆ Recreational Rider Equitation - judged on riders equitation (seat, hands, ability to control mount, etc.)

◆ Recreational Rider Pleasure - judged on manners & ability of horse to give a pleasureable ride.

◆ Recreational Rider Easter Egg & Spoon class will be run as a W/T class but is open to both W/T and W/T/C riders combined.

Second Chance Equine Division:

Open to horses, ponies and mules who have been adopted from rescue organizations, purchased from kill buyers to prevent from going to slaughter, former race horses starting a 2nd career or similar situations. Entries must be able to show proof they are qualified to the satisfaction of show management at the time of entry. Examples: copy of adoption paperwork, reclassification of registration papers (Ex. Non racing registration papers for Standardbreds), bill of sale from Moore’s Equine Rescue (kill buyer), etc. Purpose of this class is to reward exhibitors for taking the time to give equines a second chance to thrive and to shed light on the need of formerly unwanted equines.

Pre-Entry Fee $3/class, with six ribbons and a special award for class winners.

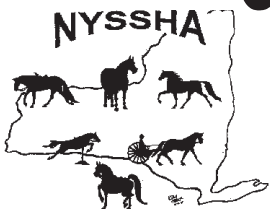

◆ Second Chance Model Equine

Entries to enter the ring at a walk, line up head to tail and to be judge standing for breed type, quality and condition for their age. May be shown in halter or bridle; exhibitors to be neatly attired. Open to entries which meet the requirements of the Second Chance Equine Division.

◆ Second Chance Pleasure Under Saddle

Open to entries which meet the requirements of the Second Chance Equine Division. To be shown both ways of the ring at a walk and trot/jog/alternate gait. To be judged on the ability to give a nice pleasure ride, with manners being paramount. Additional testing at judges discretion. Entries may be shown without penalty in any type saddle and bridle; bridle does not have to be the same style as saddle, but exhibitors attire must match seat shown. Although it is not preferred, exhibitors may use two hands on a shank bit without being disqualified in this class only. Example: a former Standardbred race horse may be shown in a snaffle English bridle with two hands and the rider uses a western saddle and is attired in western riding attire. Protective boots, bandages, etc. are optional. Entries may cross enter into w/t/c classes without penalty if qualified at this show.

Each entry form must have the release statement signed by the exhibitor or a parent or legal guardian if the exhibitor is under 18 years of age. Failure to wear the correct number in a class or to sign the release statement will result in disqualification and forfeiture of entry fees for that class, forfeiting all prize money, awards, day end and NYSSHA points.
5. The show committee reserves the right to change, move, combine, add or cancel classes as warranted, decline or refuse an entry at this show without being held liable; eliminate from further competition any exhibitor or equine should the best interest of the show be served. Corrections to the prize list will be posted in the secretary's stand.
6. Returned Checks: A $50 charge for non-negotiable checks if payment is made within 7 days of notification, $75 thereafter. This is in addition to any bank fees, collection fees and the value of the check. Participation in future events will be barred until outstanding fees are paid. Exhibitors with non-negotiable checks will have checks posted at the show as well as in future prize lists. According to the NYS General Obligations Law, Section 11-104: if your check bounces you could be liable for the face value of the check, plus two times the amount of the check, up to $400 for a check dishonored due to insufficient funds, and up to $750 for checks drawn on a non-existing account. Bad check writers may also face criminal penalties.
7. Refunds: Pre-entry stall (or pre-entry grounds fees) and class fees will be refunded, only if a request in writing and an authentic veterinary certificate are received by show manager no later than 6 p.m. on 6/4 or 8/20 for the show. All other fees are non-refundable. All entered classes will be charged to the exhibitor regardless of scratches. Any changes to classes, exhibitor or equine will be treated as a new entry.

chestnut with lots of chrome

Started in harness and under saddle

This fancy pony was rescued from slaughter a year ago. He is a timid pony who has been man handled and needs to be in a home where he can get daily attention. He has come a long way with the limited amount of time we have given him and we want a great home for him. A lovely mover, we think he would excel under saddle with the potential of making a really nice hunter pony. Trailers well, and no vices; gets along great with others. Sound, but we welcome vet check of your choice at your expense. Asking $800 (less than his rescue price) - but a suitable home is more important than price to us! Contact Linda at 518-577-3387
